Job Description

Grand International Import & Export Inc has been in business since 2019. We engage in importing and exporting Asian food products from Mainland China, Southeast Asia, Japan, South Korea and other regions. Our diverse inventory includes seafood, meats, produce, spices, seasonings, snacks, beverages, kitchenware, etc. We are committed to allowing customers in North America to enjoy our products with the best price and utmost quality.

In addition to our international trading operations, the company also owns and operates its own farm dedicated to cultivating local vegetables. This allows us to ensure consistent quality, strengthen our supply chain, and support local agriculture. By integrating farming with our import and export business, we are able to offer a balanced selection of both locally grown and internationally sourced products.
