Company Info:

Located in Langley, BC, the company is a locally operated mushroom farm specializing in the cultivation, harvesting, processing, packaging, and distribution of fresh mushrooms. The company manages the full mushroom production cycle. We require consistent, hands-on labour to maintain product quality and meet production schedules.

Job Duties:

1.Prepare growing rooms, beds, trays, and production areas for mushroom cultivation.

2.Prepare and maintain growing beds, trays, and containers with required materials.

3.Plant, spawn, and maintain mushroom crops according to farm procedures.

4.Harvest mature mushrooms by hand using proper techniques.

5.Sort, grade, trim, and clean harvested mushrooms according to quality standards.

6.Weigh, package, label, and prepare mushrooms for storage and shipment.

7.Clean and sanitize growing areas, tools, equipment, and work surfaces.

8.Load, unload, move, and store farm materials, products, supplies, and equipment.

9.Remove and dispose of spent growing materials, waste, and debris.

10.Maintain clean work areas and follow food-safety, sanitation, and workplace safety procedures.

Qualifications:

1.Previous farm, agricultural, or mushroom-farming experience is an asset.

2.Ability to perform physically demanding and repetitive tasks.

3.Ability to work in a humid farm environment and stand for extended periods.

4.Ability to lift, carry, and move farm materials and products.

5.Basic ability to follow instructions and established farm procedures.
